

THE GETTYSBURG TIMES.

When you Advertise make the Paper Show what Circulation You are Getting.

Vol X. No. 251

Gettysburg, Pa. Thursday August 8 1912

Price Two Cents

Now Then--

Any Straw Hat

IN THE STORE

1-2 Price

ECKERT'S STORE

"On The Square"

WIZARD THEATRE

ESSANAY SELIG ESSANAY

OUT OF THE NIGHT
Here's a magnificent dramatic subject of which we must brag! A plot par excellence, that involves double plotting of its finest possible standard in its unfolding. Played by our popular leading man Francis X. Pushman.
THE TURNING POINT
A dramatic comedy very cleverly enacted and containing a unique theme.
SCENES IN CUBA
Another interesting and instructive educational travel subject
IN QUARANTINE
Filled with jay-gems that spread a contagion of fast and furiously funny fun. A real live comedy hit.

BIG SOAP SALE

THE LAST

3 gross of Armours Romanza Soap
Always sold at 15c the cake

OUR PRICE

19 cts per Box---3 Cakes

PEOPLE'S DRUG STORE.

NEW PHOTOPLAY

LUBIN PATHE COMEDY SELIG LUBIN

THE VIOLIN'S MESSAGE
A story of a young girl and her brother who have a hard struggle to live, but the boy, only ten years old, by the charms of his violin's music, melts the heart of their landlord.

AN UNEXPECTED RECEPTION PATHE COMEDY

A boy, sent with gifts to two old ladies, finds them away and decides to surprise them by climbing in the window and leaving the gifts, but in so doing encounters two bull dogs and has a hot time of it.

THE STRONGER MIND SELIG

In which Prof. Locksley unravels another mystery.

Remember our pictures are easy on the eyes for they are shown on a "MIRROR SCREEN"

THE QUALITY SHOP

Reductions on all Summer Suitings, Straw Hats, Wash Ties and other Summer Wear.

WILL M. SELIGMAN,

TAILOR

HABERDASHER

BUYERS

of Early Apples, Chickens and all kinds of Produce.

When selling to us, you receive cash and run no risk of fruit spoiling and getting nothing. Highest market price paid at all times.

Rice Brothers' Produce Co., Biglerville.

Spangler's Music House

We have several fine pianos in stock that we will sell at special prices. Call and see them. They will please you and the price will be made right.

Spangler's - Music - House,
48 York Street.

On account of the action of the Town Council on having the hitching posts removed from the streets we wish to inform our customers driving to town that they are invited to tie their teams in our lot while shopping here.

PEOPLE'S CASH STORE

THREE WERE SHOT AT ENCAMPMENT

Mysterious Gun Play during Recent National Guard Encampment at Gettysburg. Are after Guilty Parties.

Colonel J.C. Eidell, commander of the First Infantry Regiment, National Guard of Pennsylvania, says the shooting of Private Charles B. Law, of Philadelphia, was only one of three that occurred at the recent encampment at Gettysburg.

Colonel Eidell will not say in which regiments the other shootings occurred, but he declares that an investigation will be made and the guilty parties apprehended.

Private Law, of Company C, First Regiment, was shot on Tuesday of last week. He was wounded in the groin. Colonel Eidell says in his statement:—

"I have not obtained the true facts in the Law shooting case. I don't think it necessary to order a court martial. I do not even know that the Law shooting occurred."

"Two others were shot under similar conditions. If I can compel those who know to give up the facts which they have at their command, it will be comparatively easy to straighten out this case."

"You must realize that I am placed in a peculiar position. In this investigation I am asked to force a company of men to tell what they know."

It was first supposed that Law was shot when his own gun accidentally discharged but now indications point to the injury having been inflicted by others while he slept.

VIRGINIA MILLS

Virginia Mills, Aug. 8.—Mrs. Daniel Benchoff and children, Mae and Donald, of near Charming, are spending some time at the home of her father, J. O. Mickle.

Jerry Spence and daughter, Marie, of near Fairfield, spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Kepner and family.

The following took in the excursion to Luray Caverns: Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lightner, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Kepner, Miss Tressie Chapman, Robert Kump, Harry Kint, Frank Kepner, Calvin Kump, Isaac Metz and George Kint.

Mrs. Flora Metz, of Mt. Pleasant, spent Monday visiting friends at this place.

Mr. and Mrs. William Kepner and four children, spent Sunday at Charming.

The following from this place spent Sunday at Pen Mar, Mr. and Mrs. John Kint, Mr. and Mrs. John Lightner and children, Merle and Helen, Mrs. Charles Nintle, and daughter, Ruth, Misses Goldie Currens, Grace Kepner, Daisy Currens, Hazel Kepner, Myrtle Kint, Messrs. John Sites, Bryan Kint and Allen Currens.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kepner and children, Mae and Ellis, of Fairfield Station, spent Saturday and Sunday at this place.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Daywalt, of near McKnightstown, spent Sunday at the home of Charles Kump and family.

Mrs. Maurice Lightner and children, Madeline and Ruth, and Mrs. Virginia Daywalt visited Wednesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Daywalt and family, of Fayetteville.

Misses Zella and Goldie Currens are spending some time at Pen Mar.

"DO UNTO YOUR NEIGHBOR"

An order from the Postmaster General's department strictly forbids the publication of "chancing contests" of any nature in either the news or advertising columns of any paper under penalty of the paper's mailing franchise being revoked. We frequently have to refuse advertising for the above reason, but the advertisers usually appreciate our position upon hearing the explanation.

This morning a minister in charge of a local congregation endeavored to have inserted a veiled advertisement of the kind referred to above and when told why it could not be published threatened to take his work to other printing establishments.

I have about completed my work in this section. Anyone wishing to see me before I leave should drop me a card. J. R. Coover, a gent for the Porter's Pain King, Washington House, Gettysburg

LADIES' white shirt waists at half price, while they last. Fair assortment of sizes. Dougherty and Hartley.

TRUNKS and bags: we are the exclusive agents for the Buffalo trunks and bags. All kinds of trunks, bags and harness repaired. Adams County Hardware Co.

IMPORTED Pilsner beer on draught at Hotel Gettysburg.

SCOUTS HIKE TO OLD BELLAIRE

Gettysburg Boy Scouts Take Hike to Carlisle where they Visit Indian School and See Other Interesting Things.

Camp Old 63, Aug. 8.—Hikes, base ball and regular camp life are the order of the day observed by the Gettysburg Boy Scouts enjoying the twelve happiest days of their lives. This morning the boys left on a hike to Carlisle where they spent several hours visiting the Indian School and seeing the trophies of the American track team. The whole town of Carlisle was given a thorough inspection by the Gettysburg boys who received a lot of attention as they marched through the streets of "Old Bellaire."

On Wednesday Camp 63 had a busy time entertaining a large number of visitors who were on the island to take in the Modern Woodmen picnic. Amateur photographers were active during the sojourn of the visitors. Sunday a large number of visitors are expected in camp from Harrisburg, Carlisle, Boiling Springs and Gettysburg. Sunday School will be held at eight o'clock in the morning.

Numerous base ball games are played and on Tuesday the Scout team played Boiling Springs to a five inning 2-2 tie. Launch rides on the creek, boating and fishing take up their share of the time but the water is still too cold for comfort. Trips to Boiling Springs have been numerous but are now barred except on special permission in order that camp discipline may be maintained.

All the Scouts are well with the exception of a few who have contracted slight colds due to lack of "covers."

The cooking proposition is one which requires much attention. The first detail to assist the chief cooks were Hub Oyler, Glenn Sheely, Lloyd Sharetts and Henry Bream. One meal cooked by Athletic Director Sachs, assisted by a fair visitor, did not meet the approval of the Scouts.

Headquarters is becoming more popular daily. As The Times correspondent is writing fourteen are in the tent with two orators at work.

"Folks at home" are requested by the boys to send mail on the train leaving Gettysburg at 11 a. m. Address it, Care of Boy Scout Camp, Island Grove Park, Boiling Springs.

While standing near a nest of angry bees, Peck McDonnell, was suddenly stung and a lively scene ensued. The bees succumbed to a bonfire, it being necessary to annihilate the enemy before playing base ball. Dr. Mundoff gave first aid to the injured member of the crew.

SKIP ACROSS THE LINE

A well planned and successful elopement was carried out Sunday night when Miss Lottie Cromer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Cromer, of Hanover, left home and met Charles C. Shellman, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Shellman, of New Oxford, by appointment—drove to Westminster, where they were married by Rev. W. L. Seabrook, a Lutheran minister.

We have been informed that there was objection on the part of the bride's parents to the match and the young couple pursued their courtship under great difficulties.

The runaway bride left home on Sunday evening, to spend the night with the family of her brother, George Cromer, in Hanover. It was from this place, while the family was in "dreamland," that the bride slipped quietly from the house and joining her lover, who was waiting with a team, they drove to the Carroll county capital, where the romance culminated.

The newly wedded pair then returned to the groom's home in New Oxford, where they were tendered a reception; also a serenade by a callithumpian band.

The groom is a fireman on the Western Maryland railroad, and they will reside in Hanover, having rented a house in that town.

LITTLE GIRLS' PLAY

A number of the little girls of town gave a playlet "The Princess and the Swineherd" in the Wizard Theatre on Wednesday afternoon before a very appreciative audience. Dances and drills, with the little play, made up the program.

THE best ten cent school hose for misses and boys in the country. Dougherty and Hartley.

LAWN MOWERS: we have a few more high grade lawn mowers that we will sell at a big reduction. Adams County Hardware Co.

WASH BOILERS: we have about 50 wash boilers that we will close out this week for fifty cents each. Adams County Hardware Co.

FLYNETS: all kinds of flynets reduced. Adams County Hardware Co.

REFORMED 6 METHODIST 4

Reformers Return to Third Place in Sunday School League by Defeating Methodists in Game Full of Excitement.

The Reformed base ball team got back into third place by defeating the Methodists in an exciting game on Wednesday evening. Score 6 to 4. Collection $2.61.

The Methodists got one in the first on Howard Ridinger's three base hit and Pfaff's out. Several over throws, a wild pitch and a base on balls added two more in the second and they looked sure winners but the Reformed batters got to working in their half and piled up four runs.

Felix and Adams got hits, advanced to second and third on a passed ball, Felix scoring on a wild pitch. Hege drew a pass and Adams scored on Shield's error of Winington's grounder. John Rupp drove out a clean three bagger scoring Hege and Winington.

Methodist Rooters in the Fourth

Two more were added by the Reformed in the fourth. Adams got a hit stole second and scored when Koch failed to get Kendebeart's drive between center and left. John Rupp made another hit scoring Kendebeart.

The Methodists made their final score in the fifth when Howard Ridinger got a hit, stole second, went to third on a passed ball and scored on Pfaff's hit.

Maurice Ridinger pitched for Methodist and Appler for Reformed. Both were hit hard and often and the game furnished plenty of amusement and excitement.

Methodist	1	2	0	0	1—4
Reformed	0	4	0	2	—6
	W.	L.	P.	C.
Catholic	5	1			.833
St. James	4	2			.667
Reformed	3	2			.600
Methodist	3	3			.500
College	2	5			.287
Presbyterian	1	5			.167

No game this evening. The Presbyterian and Catholic managers agreed to postpone this evening's game because a number of persons wished to attend the Odd Fellows' reunion at Pen Mar. Friday evening St. James vs. Methodist.

AFTER CONVENTION

The Board of Trade have in prospect a convention for the last week of September, 1913. It will number about 2000. In order that they may present convincing argument as to the ability of the town to accommodate that number they desire proprietors of hotels and boarding houses to write the secretary at once stating the amount they can accommodate and rate per day. This information should be in the hands of R. C. Miller, Secretary, not later than August 15th.

KAMP KILL KARE

Kamp Kill Kare at Table Rock is composed of the following: Misses Helen Oster, Philadelphia; Anna Felix, Emmitsburg, Md.; Margaret Bush, Altoona; Carrie Codori, Annapolis, Md.; Genevieve and Zita Ramer, Messrs. Joe Colari, Wilbur Stallemith, Fred Faber, Richard Misher, Charles Beatty, Ernest Ziegler, Mrs. James Doll, Frederick, Md.; and Mrs. Louis Weigand, Gettysburg, are the chaperones.

50 dozen extra value, misses' and boys' black hose, 10 cents per pair. Dougherty and Hartley.

THE McKnightstown base ball team will hold a festival August 31. Advertisement giving details will be published later.

GARDEN hose: we have a small quantity left that we will close out at a sacrifice. Adams County Hardware Co.

WANTED a girl for general house work. Apply Mrs. S. Gray Bigham, Biglerville.

HAMMOCKS: we have a few more hammocks that we will sell very cheap. Adams County Hardware Company.

PERSONAL NOTES AND BRIEF ITEMS

Paragraphs of News Telling of the Happenings in and about Town. People Visiting here and those Sojourning Elsewhere.

Miss Elsie Eisenhart, of Abbotstown, is visiting at the home of E. P. Miller, on York street.

Miss Myrtle Spangler and sister have returned to Harrisburg after visiting for a short time at the home of J. C. Hoke on High street.

Dr. T. J. Barkley has gone for a month's vacation to White Sulphur Spring.

Miss Mary Duttera, of Baltimore street, is visiting Miss Alice Cable at her home in Smithsburg, Md. Clay Brandenburg left Wednesday for his home in Frederick after spending some time at the home of Levi Diehl.

Miss Kate Free, of Harrisburg, is visiting Levi Diehl and family.

Miss Emma Bailey, of Ardmore, and Mrs. John Bailey, of York, are spending some time with Mrs. John Bailey, North Washington street.

Mr. and Mrs. John Huber have returned to York after a week's stay at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Zeigler, East Middle street.

E. J. Pfeffer and family, and Wallace Zeigler, have returned from Dillsburg after a short visit. Miss Bertha Myers accompanied them.

J. L. Butt and family left this morning by automobile on a two weeks' trip to Atlantic City.

Miss Anna Fissel who has been staying some time at the home of H. B. Sefton on Baltimore street, has returned to her home in Littlestown. Mrs. George Fissel and daughter, Kathryn, accompanied her.

Dr. George R. Pretz, of Lebanon, is spending some time at the home of J. A. Tawney on West Middle street.

Miss Jeanie B. Skinner, of Chambersburg, is visiting friends in town.

"Buck" Freeman played first base for the Hanover base ball team in their game Wednesday against the Atlantic City Collegians, making four hits out of four times at bat.

Miss Catherine Rhinehart is spending several days with relatives in Harrisburg.

Mrs. Wert, of Harrisburg, is visiting her parents, Dr. and Mrs. M. Moriarity at their home on Baltimore street.

LITTLESTOWN ROUTE 2

Littlestown, Route 2, Aug. 8.—Charles Coffman spent Sunday in Hanover.

George Bowers and family, of Littlestown, will move to their farm near Ash Grove school house in the Spring.

While Wilson Bair was sleeping one night last week some one made a raid on the chicken coops and took forty young chickens which were large enough for a good fry. Mr. Bair has some suspicions.

Mervin Miller, of near Horner's school house, Mt. Joy township, purchased the McSherry farm near Alloways' Bridge. Terms private. Possession given April 1, 1913.

Lincoln Trostle and George Wherley made a business trip to Gettysburg on Tuesday.

Sunday School at St. John's church on Sunday morning at 9 o'clock. Every member is expected to be present.

The racing and reckless driving on the State Highway are nearly abolished as the supervisors are busy getting the names of persons by having the constable of Germany township on the lookout at different times.

The annual Adams County Sunday School convention will be held in Bendersville August 29 and 30. The schools of Germany township will begin September 2nd.

SUCCESEUL PICNIC

St Francis Xavier picnic at Round Top on Wednesday was very largely attended, surpassing all former picnics and clearing almost $300. The committee wish to thank all who helped to make it such a great success.

LARGE EXCURSION

An eleven coach excursion run by the Business Men's Association of Lebanon brought 497 people from that city and section to Gettysburg this morning.

WAIT for Philadelphia excursion September 28. Leave Gettysburg 7 a. m., Philadelphia 11 p. m.

MY smith soap will be closed August 10-12. H. H. Warren.

RUNABOUTS: we have two runabouts with automobile backs that we will close out below cost. Adams County Hardware Co.

LETTERS FROM COUNTY TOWNS

Correspondents send in Many Items of Interesting News from their Respective Towns. Personals and Many Brief Items.

ABBOTTSTOWN

Abbottstown, Aug. 8.—Prof. Roy D. Knouse, Arendtsville, was a visitor to our town over Sunday.

Jacob Harr left here last week for Baltimore to work at his trade of plastering.

The Abraham Thoman farm, one mile east of town, was sold at public sale Saturday to Grover Sell, Hanover, for $58.75 per acre.

Harry E. Miller and wife, of York, are spending the week here with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Miller.

Miss Marie Meddinger, of Baltimore, is the guest of Cornelius Shue and family.

J. R. Berkheimer wife and family, York, were visitors here Sunday.

Miss Pauline Neiman, York, is the guest of friends here this week.

All our sick are improving nicely. Claire Wolf and Maurice Moul who were bedfast several days this week are able to be up again.

Wm. Mowry and wife, of Baltimore, are the guests of H. A. Waltman and wife of Hamilton township.

George Straley, wife and family, of Bigmouth, Eli Zinn and wife and Henry Zinn, of York, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Altland, Sunday.

Edward Steffan exhibited a potato which weighed one pound, nine ounces and says he has many more nearly that large.

Rev. F. K. Stornat announces that there will be no service here nor in East Berlin in the Lutheran churches, Sunday.

EAST BERLIN

East Berlin, Aug. 8.—While fishing in the Conewago Creek last Friday morning with hook and line Jacob Emig caught a new or water lizard. It measured 15 inches from tip to tip of body and had 4 legs 2 inches in length. The reptile very much resembles a baby alligator.

The Men's Oriental Club of Dallas, are camping at the west end of town, and the Broadway Social Club, of Littlestown, are in camp at Eisenhart's dam near town.

P. W. Trimmer, of Paradise township, last Friday evening shot a snow white crane on Jacob's dam that stood 3 feet 5 inches high and measured 6 feet 10 inches from tip to tip of wings.

The Sunday School picnic in Lafayette park, Saturday, was a success socially and financially. The Thomasville band furnished delightful music. The receipts were nearly $80.

D. W. Mummert is putting down a concrete foundation for Bert Eisenhart's new barn 44 x 70 feet, near Eisenhart's mill. Jacob Hoke and his force of men of Thomasville will erect the wood work.

At the P. O. S. of A. convention held here Saturday it was decided to hold the next year convention at Cashtown on the first Saturday in August. About 40 delegates from the various camps in the county attended both sessions here.

BARLOW

Barlow, Aug. 8.—Many campers and fishermen are found along the banks of the creeks near this place at the present time.

Quite a number of the people of this place attended the Chautauqua at Gettysburg during the past week.

The Rev. Mr. Longenecker, of Clearfield county, filled the pulpit at Mt. Joy for Rev. P. E. Stockslager on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Plank recently spent several days visiting relatives in York county in the vicinity of Red Lion.

Miss Ethel Fry recently spent several days with Miss Luetta Shanabrook.

Frank Waybright gave a very able report of the Third District Sunday School convention held at Christ's church on Sunday morning.

Regular services at Mt. Joy on Sunday morning at ten o'clock. Sunday School at nine o'clock. Christian Endeavor in the evening at 7.30.

STORES CLOSED. We the undersigned Merchants herewith agree to close our stores during August and Sept. at 6 p. m. But will remain open on Friday and Saturday evenings as usual. Same to commence Monday, August 12th. Adams County Hardware Co., O. J. Boston, Mgr., Gettysburg Department Store, J. F. Hartman, Mgr., R. E. Zinn, G. S. Diller, J. G. Stonaker, Wm. J. Eden, A. S. Mills, West End Store, J. E. Snyder, Mgr., P. A. Miller, N. L. Minter, Peoples' Cash Store.

THE GETTYSBURG TIMES

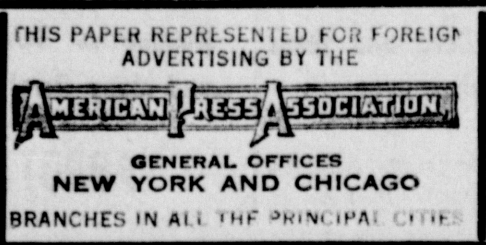

PUBLISHED DAILY EXCEPT SUNDAY
Times and News Publishing Company
W. LAVERE HAFER, Secretary and Treasurer.
PHILIP R. BIKLE, Editor.
PHILIP R. BIKLE, President.

SUBSCRIPTION Served by carrier in Gettysburg for 25 cents per month.
RATES Mailed outside of Gettysburg for 25 cents per month.
Single copies to non-subscribers, 2 cents.

IF you receive THE TIMES by mail you can find the date up to which you are paid on the pink address label on your paper. The date will be changed within ten days after your money is received at The Times Office.

Entered August 15, 1904, at Gettysburg, Pa., as second-class matter, under Congress March 3, 1879.

BELL PHONE UNITED PHONE
Office in Northwest corner of Centre Square, Gettysburg, Pennsylvania.

Want ads. 1 cent per word for first insertion and one-half cent per word for each additional insertion. Resolutions of respect, poetry and memorials 1 cent per word.

TO OUR READERS

The Gettysburg Times takes absolutely no part in politics, being neutral on all such matters. Anything that appears in general news columns, concerning state or national politics, is furnished us by The American Press Association, a concern which gives the same news to Republican, Democratic, Prohibition, or Socialist papers and which is strictly non-partisan.

Our advertising columns are open to all candidates of all parties.

To Parties Giving PIC-NICS FESTIVALS Etc.

Let us furnish your Ice Cream. We can deliver any one of a half dozen different flavors on short notice.

Gettysburg Ice & Storage Co.
Both Telephones.

EXCURSION TO BALTIMORE

Saturday, August 10, 1912

Run under the auspices of Hanover Lodge No. 227 Loyal Order of Moose of Hanover, Pa.

There will be an abundance of attractions in the city at this time.

Parks and Summer Resorts are open in full swing. Take a trip to River View Park and see the most beautiful electrical display that money can produce. 4 miles ride through the country for 5 cents, to Park. I am going, are you?

Schedule of Train
TRAINS will not stop at Pennsylvania Ave., going or returning.
RETURNING Train leaves Hillen at 11:30 P. M.

WATCH OUR WINDOWS

Store closed at 6 P. M. except SATURDAYS.

C. B. KITZMILLER.

PAINTING

CARRIAGE, AUTOMOBILE AND SIGN PAINTING
Also WOODWORK AND TRIMMING.

J. R. WEAVER,
BIGLERVILLE.

125 Customers (in Gettysburg)

will testify that the Queen Washer
is the best they ever used. Relieves the druggery of washing. When buying a washer it is economy to buy a good one. These are the best we know.

Charles S. Mumper & Company

ROOSEVELT AND JOHNSON NAMED

Ticket Nominated by the Progressives.

UPROAR IN THE CONVENTION

Nominees, Arm in Arm, Appeared Before Delegates and Were Greeted With Wildest Plaudits.

Chicago, Aug. 8.—The Progressive party, the official name of the new party adopted by the convention, completed its ticket and nominated: For president—Theodore Roosevelt, of New York.

For vice president—Hiram W. Johnson, of California.

Both nominations had been made by acclamation amid stormy scenes of enthusiasm.

Colonel Roosevelt was put in nomination by Comptroller William A. Prendergast, of New York, and the nomination had been seconded by Judge Benjamin Lindsey, of Colorado; Miss Jane Addams, of Chicago; Alexander T. Hamilton, of Georgia; General Horatio C. King, of New York; Colonel T. P. Lloyd, of Florida; General John H. McDowell, of Tennessee; Henry J. Allen, of Kansas; ex-Governor Garvin, of Rhode Island; John J. Sullivan, of Ohio, and Robert S. Fisher, of Arizona.

Governor Johnson had been put in nomination by Judge John M. Parker, of New Orleans, and the nomination had been seconded by C. S. Wheeler, of California; James R. Garfield, of Ohio; Bainbridge Colby, of New York; Frederick Landis, of Indiana; Raymond Robin, of Illinois; Clifford Pinchot, of Pennsylvania; Governor Vessey, of South Dakota; William Flinn, of Pennsylvania, and John R. Cleave, a negro, of New York.

Colonel Roosevelt, arm in arm with Governor Johnson, appeared before the convention and were greeted with the wildest plaudits, a very bedlam of a demonstration, and formally accepted the nominations. The great audience of 15,000 souls sang the Duxology to the accompaniment of a band, the file and drum corps, a quartette of trombones and cornets, with the minute gun machine banging away up in the organ loft, and with the benediction the convention adjourned.

At that moment a great banner was dropped from the girders on the roof of the Coliseum, with this legend: "Roosevelt and Johnson."

"New York and California." "Hands across the continent." "For there is neither east nor west." "Border nor breed." "Nor birth."

"When two strong men stand face to face."

"Though they come from the ends of the earth."

From the very first moment to the last this convention has had the appearance of a great religious revival. Senator Dixon and others remarked at the close of the scene:

"This is not politics; this is religion."

When Mr. Prendergast rose to place Roosevelt's name in nomination he was greeted as New York's next governor, and from start to finish he was most generously applauded. When he closed by saying, "I present to you America's greatest statesman and lion-hearted citizen, Theodore Roosevelt," he turned on another demonstration similar to that of Tuesday, when Colonel Roosevelt appeared and spoke before the convention.

There were thundering cheers, the rolling music, the flags and banners, the flares and the drummers and the banging of the minute gun machine, yells, shrieks, cheers, howls, in fact a very crazy bedlam of enthusiasm. The great audience sang "The Red, White and Blue," "Onward, Christian Soldiers," "Star Spangled Banner," "My Country, 'Tis of Thee," "The Battle Hymn of the Republic," "Dixie," and at times turned and shouted a welcome to Mrs. Roosevelt, who again bowed and retired to a quiet corner in her box.

This time the demonstration lasted forty-one minutes.

Then came the second speeches. Although the rules adopted by the convention declared that no seconding speech shall last longer than five minutes, all broke the rule except Miss Addams and General King. The general in closing his brief remarks declared: "This Progressive party is determined that the people of this country shall not have a government of the bosses, by the bosses and for the bosses."

Colonel Lloyd is an old Confederate soldier, with four Union bullets in him, and at the close of his speech General King flung his arms about Colonel Lloyd, indicating a fraternal feeling between the north and the south, and this brought out one of the wildest demonstrations of the day.

Major General McDowell's speech was another to the effect that the sectional feeling must be obliterated. He declared that Colonel Roosevelt was the man to wipe out any remaining prejudice or sectional lines, and he closed by saying:

"Confronting my brave comrades on the other side, I want to see this nation united."

This called for another wild scene. The thousands sang "Dixie," the band and the trombones and the cornets all joining in.

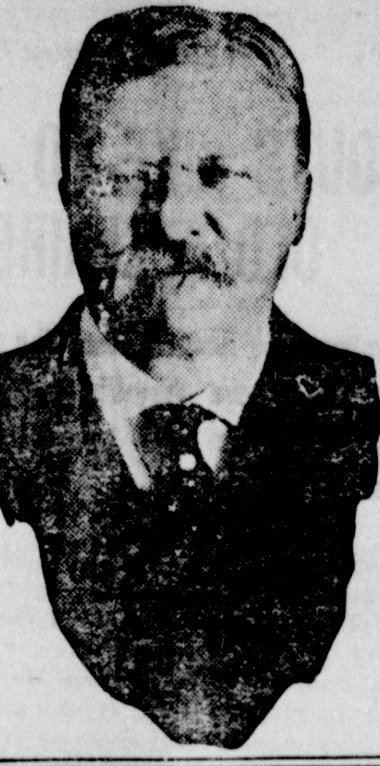

M. THOMPSON DILL,
DENTIST
Biglerville, Penna.

All branches of the profession given careful attention. United Telephone.

FOR SALE: mare mule colt going on 4 months old. Apply Jacob S. Snyder, Idaville, United phone.

THEODORE ROOSEVELT.

Nominated For President by Progressives.

PLATFORM TAKES WIDE SCOPE

New Party Ready to Sweep Away Abuses.

Chicago, Aug. 8.—The following is an outline of the platform as adopted by the convention:

The preamble, among other things, says:

"This country belongs to the people who inhabit it. Its resources, its business, its institutions and its laws should be utilized, maintained or altered in whatever manner will best promote the general interest. It is time to set the public welfare in the first place."

The platform deals with "the old parties," which it characterizes as "the tools of corrupt interests which use them impartially to serve their selfish purposes."

"The deliberate betrayal of its trust by the Republican party," it continues, "and the fatal incapacity of the Democratic party to deal with the new issues of the new time, have compelled the people to forge a new instrument of government in the Progressive party."

Nation-wide presidential preference primaries, primaries for state officials, a short ballot, "with responsibility to the people secured by the initiative, referendum and recall," an easy and expeditious method of amending the federal constitution; effective national jurisdiction of problems which have expanded beyond reach of the individual states; equal suffrage; publicity of campaign expenditures and limitation of contributions, are some of the planks.

The platform pledges the party to legislation forbidding federal appointments from holding office in state or national political organizations, or taking part as delegates in state or national conventions.

The party demands such restrictions of the power of the courts as shall leave to the people the ultimate authority to determine fundamental questions of social welfare and public policy.

Other planks declare for: Law providing for one day of rest in seven; three shifts of eight hours in continuous industries; prohibition of the premature employment of children; provision for insurance against hazards of sickness, accident, invalidism, involuntary employment and old age; strengthening and efficient enforcement of pure food laws; establishment of federal department in which shall be combined all agencies relating to public health; revival of the country life commission and co-operation by the government with the farmer to make the farm more productive; provision for rural banking and rural credits, and strengthening of the anti-trust laws against a monopoly and social practices.

There were thundering cheers, the rolling music, the flags and banners, the flares and the drummers and the banging of the minute gun machine, yells, shrieks, cheers, howls, in fact a very crazy bedlam of enthusiasm.

The great audience sang "The Red, White and Blue," "Onward, Christian Soldiers," "Star Spangled Banner," "My Country, 'Tis of Thee," "The Battle Hymn of the Republic," "Dixie," and at times turned and shouted a welcome to Mrs. Roosevelt, who again bowed and retired to a quiet corner in her box.

This time the demonstration lasted forty-one minutes.

Then came the second speeches. Although the rules adopted by the convention declared that no seconding speech shall last longer than five minutes, all broke the rule except Miss Addams and General King. The general in closing his brief remarks declared: "This Progressive party is determined that the people of this country shall not have a government of the bosses, by the bosses and for the bosses."

Colonel Lloyd is an old Confederate soldier, with four Union bullets in him, and at the close of his speech General King flung his arms about Colonel Lloyd, indicating a fraternal feeling between the north and the south, and this brought out one of the wildest demonstrations of the day.

Major General McDowell's speech was another to the effect that the sectional feeling must be obliterated. He declared that Colonel Roosevelt was the man to wipe out any remaining prejudice or sectional lines, and he closed by saying:

"Confronting my brave comrades on the other side, I want to see this nation united."

This called for another wild scene. The thousands sang "Dixie," the band and the trombones and the cornets all joining in.

M. THOMPSON DILL,
DENTIST
Biglerville, Penna.

All branches of the profession given careful attention. United Telephone.

FOR SALE: mare mule colt going on 4 months old. Apply Jacob S. Snyder, Idaville, United phone.

PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION OF THE COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA, BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY, IN PURSUANCE OF ARTICLE XVIII OF THE CONSTITUTION.

Number One.

A JOINT RESOLUTION

Proposing an amendment to article nine, section four, of the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, authorizing the State to issue bonds to the amount of fifty millions of dollars for the improvement of the highways of the Commonwealth.

Section 1. Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, That the following amendment to the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania be, and the same is hereby, proposed, in accordance with the eighteenth article thereof:

That section four of article nine, which reads as follows:

"Section 4. No debt shall be created by or on behalf of the State, except to supply casual deficiencies of revenue, repeal invasion, suppress insurrection, defend the State in war, or to pay existing debt; and the debt created to supply deficiency in revenue shall never exceed, in the aggregate at any one time, one million of dollars," be amended so to read as follows:

Section 4. No debt shall be created by or on behalf of the State, except to supply casual deficiencies of revenue, repeal invasion, suppress insurrection, defend the State in war, or to pay existing debt; and the debt created to supply deficiency in revenue shall never exceed, in the aggregate at any one time, one million of dollars: Provided, however, That the General Assembly, irrespective of any debt, may authorize the State to issue bonds to the amount of fifty millions of dollars for the purpose of improving the highways of the Commonwealth.

A true copy of Joint Resolution No. 1.

ROBERT MCAFEE,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.

Number Two.

A JOINT RESOLUTION

Proposing an amendment to section seven, article three of the Constitution of Pennsylvania, to permit special legislation regulating labor.

Section 1. Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, That the following amendment to the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in accordance with the provisions of the eighteenth article thereof, be proposed:

Section 2. Amend section seven, article three of the Constitution of Pennsylvania, which reads as follows:

"Section 2. The General Assembly shall not pass any local or special law authorizing the creation, extension, or impairing of liens:

"Changing the names of persons or places;

"Changing the venue in civil or criminal cases;

"Authorizing the laying out, opening, altering, or maintaining roads, highways, streets or alleys;

"Relating to ferries or bridges, or incorporating ferry or bridge companies, except for the erection of bridges crossing streams which form boundaries between two or more counties or cities or towns or villages;

"Vacating roads, town plats, streets or alleys;

"Relating to cemeteries, graveyards, or public grounds not of the State;

"Authorizing the adoption, or legitimization of children;

"Locating or changing county seats, erecting new counties or changing county limits or school districts;

"Creating offices, or prescribing the powers and duties of officers in counties, cities, boroughs, townships, election or school districts;

"Changing the law of descent or succession;

"Regulating the practice or jurisdiction of, or changing the rules of evidence in, any judicial proceeding or inquiry before courts, auditors, masters in chancery, or other tribunals, or providing or changing methods for the collection of debts, or the enforcing of judgments, or prescribing the effect of judicial sales of real estate;

"Regulating the fees, or extending the powers and duties of, or providing for the peace, magistrates or constables;

"Regulating the management of public schools, the building or repairing of school houses and the raising of money for such purposes;

"Fixing the rate of interest;

"Affecting the estates of minors or persons under disability, except after due notice to all parties in interest, to be recited in the special enactment;

"Remitting fines, penalties and forfeitures, or refunding moneys legally paid into the treasury;

"Exempting property from taxation;

"Regulating labor, trade, mining or manufacturing;

"Creating corporations, or amending, renewing or extending the charters thereof, or granting to any corporation, association or individual any special or exclusive privilege or immunity, or to any corporation, association or individual the right to lay down a railroad track;

"Nor shall the General Assembly indirectly enact such special or local law by the partial repeal of a general law; but laws repealing local or special acts may be passed;

"Nor shall any law be passed granting powers or privileges in any case where the granting of such powers and privileges shall have been provided for by general law, nor where the courts have jurisdiction to grant the same or give the relief asked for," so as to read as follows:

Section 2. The General Assembly shall not pass any local or special law authorizing the creation, extension or impairing of liens:

"Changing the names of persons or places;

"Changing the venue in civil or criminal cases;

"Authorizing the laying out, opening, altering, or maintaining roads, highways, streets or alleys;

"Relating to ferries or bridges, or incorporating ferry or bridge companies, except for the erection of bridges crossing streams which form boundaries between two or more counties or cities or towns or villages;

"Vacating roads, town plats, streets or alleys;

"Relating to cemeteries, graveyards, or public grounds not of the State;

"Authorizing the adoption, or legitimization of children;

"Locating or changing county seats, erecting new counties or changing county limits or school districts;

"Creating offices, or prescribing the powers and duties of officers in counties, cities, boroughs, townships, election or school districts;

"Changing the law of descent or succession;

"Regulating the practice or jurisdiction of, or changing the rules of evidence in, any judicial proceeding or inquiry before courts, auditors, masters in chancery, or other tribunals, or providing or changing methods for the collection of debts, or the enforcing of judgments, or prescribing the effect of judicial sales of real estate;

"Regulating the fees, or extending the powers and duties of, or providing for the peace, magistrates or constables;

"Regulating the management of public schools, the building or repairing of school houses and the raising of money for such purposes;

"Fixing the rate of interest;

"Affecting the estates of minors or persons under disability, except after due notice to all parties in interest, to be recited in the special enactment;

"Remitting fines, penalties and forfeitures, or refunding moneys legally paid into the treasury;

"Exempting property from taxation;

PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION OF THE COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA, BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY, IN PURSUANCE OF ARTICLE XVIII OF THE CONSTITUTION.

Number One.

A JOINT RESOLUTION

Proposing an amendment to article nine, section four, of the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, authorizing the State to issue bonds to the amount of fifty millions of dollars for the improvement of the highways of the Commonwealth.

Section 1. Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, That the following amendment to the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania be, and the same is hereby, proposed, in accordance with the eighteenth article thereof:

That section four of article nine, which reads as follows:

"Section 4. No debt shall be created by or on behalf of the State, except to supply casual deficiencies of revenue, repeal invasion, suppress insurrection, defend the State in war, or to pay existing debt; and the debt created to supply deficiency in revenue shall never exceed, in the aggregate at any one time, one million of dollars," be amended so to read as follows:

Section 4. No debt shall be created by or on behalf of the State, except to supply casual deficiencies of revenue, repeal invasion, suppress insurrection, defend the State in war, or to pay existing debt; and the debt created to supply deficiency in revenue shall never exceed, in the aggregate at any one time, one million of dollars: Provided, however, That the General Assembly, irrespective of any debt, may authorize the State to issue bonds to the amount of fifty millions of dollars for the purpose of improving the highways of the Commonwealth.

A true copy of Joint Resolution No. 1.

ROBERT MCAFEE,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.

Number Two.

A JOINT RESOLUTION

Proposing an amendment to section seven, article three of the Constitution of Pennsylvania, to permit special legislation regulating labor.

Section 1. Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, That the following amendment to the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in accordance with the provisions of the eighteenth article thereof, be proposed:

Section 2. Amend section seven, article three of the Constitution of Pennsylvania, which reads as follows:

"Section 2. The General Assembly shall not pass any local or special law authorizing the creation, extension, or impairing of liens:

"Changing the names of persons or places;

"Changing the venue in civil or criminal cases;

"Authorizing the laying out, opening, altering, or maintaining roads, highways, streets or alleys;

"Relating to ferries or bridges, or incorporating ferry or bridge companies, except for the erection of bridges crossing streams which form boundaries between two or more counties or cities or towns or villages;

"Vacating roads, town plats, streets or alleys;

"Relating to cemeteries, graveyards, or public grounds not of the State;

"Authorizing the adoption, or legitimization of children;

"Locating or changing county seats, erecting new counties or changing county limits or school districts;

"Creating offices, or prescribing the powers and duties of officers in counties, cities, boroughs, townships, election or school districts;

"Changing the law of descent or succession;

"Regulating the practice or jurisdiction of, or changing the rules of evidence in, any judicial proceeding or inquiry before courts, auditors, masters in chancery, or other tribunals, or providing or changing methods for the collection of debts, or the enforcing of judgments, or prescribing the effect of judicial sales of real estate;

"Regulating the fees, or extending the powers and duties of, or providing for the peace, magistrates or constables;

"Regulating the management of public schools, the building or repairing of school houses and the raising of money for such purposes;

"Fixing the rate of interest;

"Affecting the estates of minors or persons under disability, except after due notice to all parties in interest, to be recited in the special enactment;

"Remitting fines, penalties and forfeitures, or refunding moneys legally paid into the treasury;

"Exempting property from taxation;

"Regulating labor, trade, mining or manufacturing;

"Creating corporations, or amending, renewing or extending the charters thereof, or granting to any corporation, association or individual any special or exclusive privilege or immunity, or to any corporation, association or individual the right to lay down a railroad track;

"Nor shall the General Assembly indirectly enact such special or local law by the partial repeal of a general law; but laws repealing local or special acts may be passed;

"Nor shall any law be passed granting powers or privileges in any case where the granting of such powers and privileges shall have been provided for by general law, nor where the courts have jurisdiction to grant the same or give the relief asked for," so as to read as follows:

Section 2. The General Assembly shall not pass any local or special law authorizing the creation, extension or impairing of liens:

"Changing the names of persons or places;

"Changing the venue in civil or criminal cases;

"Authorizing the laying out, opening, altering, or maintaining roads, highways, streets or alleys;

"Relating to ferries or bridges, or incorporating ferry or bridge companies, except for the erection of bridges crossing streams which form boundaries between two or more counties or cities or towns or villages;

"Vacating roads, town plats, streets or alleys;

"Relating to cemeteries, graveyards, or public grounds not of the State;

"Authorizing the adoption, or legitimization of children;

"Locating or changing county seats, erecting new counties or changing county limits or school districts;

"Creating offices, or prescribing the powers and duties of officers in counties, cities, boroughs, townships, election or school districts;

"Changing the law of descent or succession;

"Regulating the practice or jurisdiction of, or changing the rules of evidence in, any judicial proceeding or inquiry before courts, auditors, masters in chancery, or other tribunals, or providing or changing methods for the collection of debts, or the enforcing of judgments, or prescribing the effect of judicial sales of real estate;

"Regulating the fees, or extending the powers and duties of, or providing for the peace, magistrates or constables;

"Regulating the management of public schools, the building or repairing of school houses and the raising of money for such purposes;

"Fixing the rate of interest;

"Affecting the estates of minors or persons under disability, except after due notice to all parties in interest, to be recited in the special enactment;

"Remitting fines, penalties and forfeitures, or refunding moneys legally paid into the treasury;

"Exempting property from taxation;

shall have been operated by said county or municipality during said period of one year. Any of the said municipalities or counties may incur indebtedness in excess of seven per centum, and not exceeding an per centum, of the assessed valuation of the taxable property therein, if said increase of indebtedness shall have been assented to by three-fifths of the electors voting at a public election, in such manner as shall be provided by law.

A true copy of Joint Resolution No. 5.

ROBERT MCAFEE,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.

Medical Advertising

Saved Daughter's Life

This Father Refused to Let His Daughter Die.

Here is a story with a moral that many parents might take to heart:

"My daughter was very pale, nervous, thin, and suffered with severe pain in her back, so that we took her out of school. Her flesh became blue and she could not retain her urine. I spent over $100 for medicines, but she grew worse. Finally I bought a bottle of Thompson's Barosma and she began to grow better right away. Five bottles of Thompson's Barosma made a complete cure, and today she is a perfectly healthy girl. Thompson's Barosma saved her life, for she was failing so fast that death was not far off."—Frank D. Meeder, Pleasantville, Pa.

If you are troubled with backache, headache, weakness in the back, or any liver or kidney trouble, then it's time for Thompson's Barosma.

People's and Huber's Drug Stores sell Thompson's Barosma in two sizes, 50 cents and $1.00, and they guarantee it to cure Bright's disease, indigestion, urine, bed-wetting, and all other kidney and liver diseases. It will make anyone vigorous in a few weeks, because it is a great tonic and maker of rich red blood. All druggists.

Aid The Kidneys

Do Not Endanger Life When a Gettysburg Citizen Shows You the Way to Avoid It.

Why will people continue to suffer the agonies of kidney complaint, backache, urinary disorders, lameness, headaches, languor, why allow themselves to become chronic invalid

APPROPRIATION BILL PASSED

Fate of Commerce Court Is Again Up to President Taft.

Washington, Aug. 8.—Limited terms for civil service employees, the abolition of the commerce court and the retention of its five judges as extra circuit judges, will be submitted to President Taft as provisions of the legislative, executive and judicial appropriation bill.

All these proposals, already approved by the house, were adopted by the senate by a vote of 39 to 19 against the opposition of Senators Cummins, Crawford, Burton, Lodge and several others.

Some of President Taft's friends say he will veto the bill, although in doing so he will hold up his own salary, that of every member of congress and every United States judge. Such action on the president's part would also further delay the annual appropriation overdue since July 1.

The president is said to oppose the abandonment of life tenure for civil service employees and also the abolition of the commerce court.

The bill carries an appropriation of $34,000,000.

Motorboat Crosses Atlantic.

Kinsale, Ireland, Aug. 8.—The motorboat Detroit, commanded by Captain Thomas Fleming Day, of New York, which started at noon on July 1 from New Rochelle harbor, New York, on her voyage to St. Petersburg, was sighted off this port.

Rescuers Find Miner Dead.

Stamokin, Pa., Aug. 8.—Bert Kober was entombed by an enormous rush of coal at the Buck Ridge colliery. A rescue party in great danger worked until it pierced the barrier and found Kober dead.

SURGERY IN ANCIENT TIMES

Trepanning Is One of the Oldest of Operations, Dating Back to Stone Age.

There is no doubt that some rough form of surgery must have existed from very ancient times, but it is strange to find that so complex and delicate an operation as trepanning is one of the oldest.

So far as actual records go, Hippocrates gives us the earliest account. He wrote treatises on fractures, dislocations and wounds of the head, in which he described the method of procedure to be followed in the case of a fractured skull. His direction was to cut away a piece of bone so that the pressure on the brain might be relieved.

There are also records about this time and later of a file being used for this purpose, which at a time when anaesthetics were undreamed of must have been, to say the least, painful.

According to Dr. T. Rice Holmes, the operation of removing pieces of bone was performed long before historic times. The effects on the skull are easily seen after death and are visible so long as the bones are preserved.

From inspection of certain skulls of the later stone age in ancient Britain, Dr. Holmes has come to the conclusion that some of these had undergone the operation, which must have been performed with a stone implement.—London Standard.

Neither Meant Much.

Grant Duff relates a conversation which prevents swearing in its most common light—the swearing for swearing's sake. "Oh, Mr. —, I wish you would not use such dreadful language. It gives me real pain," was the protest. And this the apology: "Pray, don't mind. I swear and you pray, but neither of us mean much by it."—London Chronicle.

ADJOURNED Receiver's Sale

On Thursday the 8th day of August, 1912, the undersigned, by virtue of his appointment by the Court of Common Pleas of Adams County, as receiver of the estate of David H. Yoh, insolvent of Butler township, Adams County, will sell at an adjourned sale at the residence of said David H. Yoh, on the Rev. W. W. Deutrich farm in Butler township, about one-half mile East of Deardorff's Mill, along the Stone Jug Road, and two and one-half miles from Biglerville and Heidersburg, the following valuable personal property, viz:

Three good work horses, one mule, one colt coming two years old, three good cows, two heifers, self-binder, mower, hay rake, grain drill, two-horse farm wagon, two spring wagons, two buggies, two spring harrows, two long plows, shovel plow, corn fork, two corn cultivators, hay ladders, sled, hay rake, four sets of gears, set, buggy harness, collars, bridles, lines, halters, single, double and triple trees, two hogs, 59 chickens more or less, one-half interest in 15 acres of wheat now in shocks, one-half interest in 9 acres of oats, and one-half interest in 15 acres of corn.

Sale to begin promptly at 12 o'clock noon, when terms will be made known by.

W. A. TAUGHENBAUGH, Receiver.

G. R. Thompson, auct.

WANTED

Young man, preferably between the ages of 15 and 25, as permanent clerk. Application must be made by letter, in applicants hand writing, and must state age, former employment, clerking experience if any, salary desired, etc. Do not apply in person, as it will lessen applicant's chances of acceptance.

M. K. ECKERT.

Eckert's Store, "On the square," Pa.

FARMERS ATTENTION!

BLACK PRINCE No. 251, sire of Garibaldi, (formerly owned by the Franklin Township Horse Company), has been licensed by the State Live Stock Sanitary Board as an unregistered but SOUND Stallion, weighs 1350 pounds, height 16 hands. Black Prince will stand on the farm of G. C. OYLER, Franklin Township, from April 1st. to July 1st, 1912.

For further information write or phone to,

George C. Oyler, Owner and Keeper

R. F. D. 5, Gettysburg, Pa.

BASE BALL SCORES.

Following is the Result of Games Played Yesterday.

AMERICAN LEAGUE.

At St. Louis—Athletics, 7; St. Louis, 2. Batteries—Coombs, Lapp; Baumgardner, Stephens.
At Detroit—Detroit, 7; New York, 0. Batteries—Dobub, Stanage; Warhop, Davis, Sweeney.
At Chicago—Washington, 10; Chicago, 1. Batteries—Johnson, Engle, Almsmith, Lange, Peters, Kuhn.
At Cleveland—Boston, 4; Cleveland, 4 (9 innings, darkness). Batteries—O'Brien, Hall, Carrigan; Mitchell, O'Neill.

Standing of the Clubs.

W. L. P. C. W. L. P. C.
Boston... 70 33 680 Detroit... 53 52 505
Washn... 65 49 625 Cleveland... 46 56 451
Athletics... 60 42 588 N. York... 32 67 323
Chicago... 51 50 505 St. Louis... 32 70 314

NATIONAL LEAGUE.

At Philadelphia—Philadelphia, 4; Chicago, 1. Batteries—Rixey, Kullifer; Reulbach, Archer.
At New York—Pittsburgh, 7; New York, 2. Batteries—O'Toole, Kelly; Mathewson, Kirby, Meyers.
At Brooklyn—Brooklyn, 8; St. Louis, 7. Batteries—Allen, Stack, Miller; Steele, Bliss, Sallee, Harmon, Wingo.
At Boston—Cincinnati, 11; Boston, 3. Batteries—Benton, Clarke, Hess, Radden, Brown.

Standing of the Clubs.

W. L. P. C. W. L. P. C.
N. York... 71 27 725 Cincinnati... 47 54 463
Chicago... 53 36 637 St. Louis... 44 58 484
Pittsburg... 58 38 604 Brooklyn... 37 64 386
Philada... 48 47 505 Boston... 27 71 276

TRI-STATE LEAGUE.

At Chester—Trenton, 8; Chester, 8 (11 innings, darkness). Batteries—Girard, Mitchell; McLean, Edwards.
At Harrisburg—Harrisburg, 8; Atlantic City, 1. Batteries—Chabek, Miller; Smith, Frost.
At Reading—Reading, 16; Wilmington, 12. Batteries—Rasmussen, Therre; Llewellyn, Kerr.
At York—Allentown, 11; York, 4. Batteries—Horsey, Philbin; Lloyd, Porte.

Standing of the Clubs.

W. L. P. C. W. L. P. C.
Harrisburg... 53 31 631 Wilmington... 40 45 473
Trenton... 51 34 600 Reading... 39 46 453
Allentown... 49 34 590 York... 35 45 417
Atlant. Cy... 43 39 524 Chester... 26 58 306

FIVE YEARS FOR SUFFRAGETTES

Mrs. Leigh and Miss Evans to Penal Servitude.

Dublin, Aug. 8.—Mary Leigh, the suffragette, who was convicted on the charge of wounding John E. Redmond, leader of the Irish parliamentary party, with a hatchet she threw at Premier Asquith's carriage July 19, was sentenced to five years' imprisonment.

Glady's Evans, whose sentence was reserved, after she had been found guilty of setting fire, July 18, to the Theater Royal, in which Mr. Asquith was to speak on home rule, was also sentenced to a five-year term.

Lizzie Baker, charged with being an accomplice of Glady's Evans, pleaded guilty and was sentenced to seven months' imprisonment.

The alleged arson consisted in hurling a blazing chair from one of the theater boxes during a performance. Some petroleum was found in the box.

Several hundred women have received terms for a few days up to two or three months in jail for window smashing, taking part in riots, assaults on cabinet members and kindred offenses, but the present occasion is the first on which they have been treated as criminals of the more serious sort.

EL PASO AGAIN FIRED ON

Mexicans Shoot at American Soldiers Guarding the Frontier.

El Paso, Tex., Aug. 8.—Mexicans fired again on United States troops on guard on the border.

The firing this time occurred at most opposite the El Paso smelter northwest of El Paso, three or four miles from where shots were exchanged last week between United States troops and Mexicans.

The shots were fired from the Mexican side of the river and appeared to be aimed at American soldiers camping near the smelter. The Americans returned the fire. The soldiers believe the firing was done by relief patrolmen with malicious intent.

3 Killed, 12 Hurt, When Tank Falls.

Pittsburgh, Pa., Aug. 8.—Three girls were killed and twelve badly injured when a water tank on the top of the Union American Cigar company building, at Twenty-eighth and Smallman streets, crashed through the roof and the sixth and fifth floors.

GENERAL MARKETS

PHILADELPHIA — FLOUR quiet; winter clear, $4.10@4.30; city mills, fancy, $5.75@6.
RYE FLOUR quiet, at $4.42.25 per barrel.

WHEAT firm; No. 2 red, 95½¢@96¢. CORN quiet; No. 2 yellow, 82½¢@83¢.

OATS firm; No. 2 white, 65¢@66¢; lower grades, 64¢.

POULTRY: Live steady; hens, 15½¢@16¢; old roosters, 11¢. Dresser firm; choice fowls, 17¢; old roosters, 12¢.

BUTTER quiet; creamery, fancy, 29¢ per lb.

EGGS steady; selected, 26¢@27¢; nearby, 25¢; western, 25¢.

POTATOES steady; 80¢@81 bush.

Live Stock Markets.

PITTSBURGH (Union Stock Yards) — CATTLE steady; choice, $9.25@9.50; prime, $8.60@9.10.

SHEEP steady; prime weathers, $5.50@5.75; culls and common, $1.50@3.50; lambs, $4.50@7.40; real calves, $9.50@10.

HOGS higher; prime heavies, $8.50@8.55; mediums, heavy Yorkers and light Yorkers, $8.90@9.95; pigs, $3.50@8.75; roughs, $7@7.50.

HIRAM JOHNSON.

Nominated For Vice President by Progressives.

SEEK PARDON FOR CONDEMNED WOMAN

Efforts to Obtain Freedom For Kate Edwards.

Reading, Pa., Aug. 8.—Arrangements are being made for a renewed effort to obtain the pardon of Kate Edwards, for eleven years a prisoner here, under sentence of death for the murder of her husband, John Edwards.

E. H. Dejaher and Oliver Lents are the attorneys in charge of the plans to be presented to the pardon board this fall.

The woman killed her husband while she was intoxicated and threw the body into a well. After her incarceration the woman became the mother of a negro child, which is now in a southern institution. She implicated a negro, Dan Greason, of Carlisle, in the killing of her husband, and both were convicted of murder in the first degree. Later the woman cleared Greason.

A nation-wide movement was begun to save her during the Pennypacker administration, many thousands of persons having signed protests to prevent the woman being legally executed.

Greason was freed, but a special act was passed by the legislature in order to permit a new trial in case of after discovered evidence of importance.

The woman since her incarceration has become improved in character. She has done the mending of the institution for ten years, is reserved, and friends have agreed to provide a home in a distant part of the country for her care if she is freed.

Four governors have "side stepped" issuing a warrant for her execution. Heretofore application was only made for commutation to life sentence, but now a complete pardon is desired.

RECORD PRICE FOR STEERS

Corn Fed Animals Sold at $10.25 in Chicago.

Chicago, Aug. 8.—Steers established a new price record at the stock yards for the second time this week.

One lot of Illinois fed steers sold at $10.25, or 15 cents higher than the record made on Monday. The mark of that day was also passed in the case of another lot of steers, which sold at $10.15. Range steers came to the front, also with a new record, when $8.20 was paid for one lot of native bred western steers.

The recent advance in the price of cattle on the hoof, according to the stock yards men, is simply the result of a shortage, which has never been so marked as at the present time.

Farmer Gored by Bull.

West Chester, Pa., Aug. 8.—Joseph Cope, aged about thirty years, a farmer of Westtown township, near here, and a son of Gilbert Cope, was gored by a bull and is in a serious condition, but his physicians hope to save his life.

Cope went into a stable where the bull was kept loose and was at once attacked. He managed to crawl out of its reach and his cries brought assistance.

WEATHER EVERYWHERE.

Observations of United States weather bureaus taken at 8 p. m. yesterday follow:

Temp. Weather.

Albany... 70 P. Cloudy.

Atlantic City... 72 P. Cloudy.

Boston... 66 Cloudy.

Buffalo... 70 Cloudy.

Chicago... 70 Cloudy.

New Orleans... 80 Clear.

New York... 62 Cloudy.

Philadelphia... 70 Cloudy.

St. Louis... 74 Cloudy.

Washington... 72 Clear.

Weather Forecast.

Cloudy today; showers tomorrow; southerly winds.

NOTICE

Sealed proposals to build a banking house in Bendersville, Pennsylvania, for the Bendersville National Bank, will be received until noon on August 15th, 1912. Plans and specifications for the same will be furnished upon application, or may be seen at the office of Robert Stair, Jr., architect, of York, Pa., or the undersigned. The right to reject any or all bids is hereby reserved.

W. L. SNYDER,

Chairman Building Committee.

Bendersville, Pa.

WILSON GIVES HIS POLICIES

Outlines Ideas at Notification at Sea Girt.

FAVORS CUTS IN TARIFF

Says High Cost of Living Is Arranged by Private Understanding and Raps Big Business.

Sea Girt, N. J., Aug. 8.—In formally accepting the Democratic nomination for the presidency, of which he was officially notified by a committee including many governors and other leaders of his party, Governor Woodrow Wilson discussed the principal issues of the campaign, and gave his views as to the measures necessary, in his opinion, to meet the problems which confront his party.

The address had been awaited with considerable interest as affording him an opportunity, as the standard bearer of the Democracy, to tell where he stood on the leading political questions of the day, and the crowd that assembled at the "Little White House," as it is called by the governor's admirers, listened intently to catch the import of his words.

From the broad veranda of the white-coated house the nominee delivered his speech. Grouped beneath wide-spreading willows and elms were the more prominent guests, hedged in by clumps of ferns and bushes. The governor read from his manuscript.

The platform, he said, was not a program, but a practical document intended to show "that we know what the nation is thinking about and what it is most concerned about." The people, he added, were about to be asked not particularly to adopt a platform, but to entrust the Democratic party with "office and power and the guidance of their affairs" and their desire now was to know what "translation of action and policy he intends to give to the general terms of the platform, should he be elected."

An immediate downward revision of the tariff, amendments to the Sherman anti-trust law, and more adequate legislation, both civil and criminal, looking to the control of monopolies; legislation to prevent the interlocking of directorates of big corporations that tends to place the finances of the country under the control of a few men; legislation that will safeguard the lives and improve the physical and moral conditions of the working people; a close inspection of the political life of the people of the Philippines; the adaptation of banking and currency laws to the varied uses to which our people must put them; conservation of natural resources; development of merchant marine and waterways; presidential primaries and the direct election of United States senators, were some of the important recommendations which the governor advocated.

Governor Wilson holds the present high tariff responsible for the high cost of living and the rapid growth of monopolies, and denounced the Payne-Aldrich tariff act "as the most conspicuous example ever afforded the country of the special favors and monopolistic advantages which the leaders of the Republican party have so often shown themselves willing to extend to those to whom they looked for campaign contributions."

High wages yield us no great comfort. We used to be better off with less because a dollar could buy so much more. Prices climb faster than we can push our earnings up. The high cost of living is arranged by private understanding.

He declared himself in favor of an immediate revision, and said: "It should be downward, unhesitatingly and steadily downward." In order not to disturb the business interests of the country he advocated proceeding with caution and prudence. "Like men who know what they are about and not like those in love with a theory."

He declared that the trusts, instead of belonging to a period of infant industries, were the product of a very sophisticated age when men knew what they wanted and knew how to get it by the favor of the government.

The present anti-trust law, he said, had apparently proved ineffectual, and while he did not hold anyone responsible, he declared that it will be necessary to supplement the present law with such laws, both civil and criminal, as will effectively punish and prevent the methods by which trusts have established monopolies, adding such other laws as may be necessary to provide suitable and adequate judicial processes, whether civil or criminal, to disclose them and follow them to a final verdict and judgment.

A problem that he considers greater than the trusts is what he termed the "vast confederacies" of banks, railroads, express companies, insurance companies, manufacturing corporations, mining corporations, power and development companies, bound together by the fact that the ownership of their stock and the members of their boards of directors are controlled and determined by comparatively small and closely inter-related groups of persons, who, by their informal confederacy, may control, if they please and when they will, both credit and enterprise. He hinted at the existence of a "money trust," and while he admitted such a thing might not exist, he advocated legislation to prevent it.

Gettysburg - Business - Directory

Where to buy the things you need.

MARTIN WINTER INSURANCE and REAL ESTATE	W. H. TIPTON PHOTOGRAPHER Gettysburg Souvenirs	C. B. HARTMAN BUTCHER Full line of fresh meats always on hand.
YOHE'S BAKERY Bread, Cakes and Confectionery Soda Water	THE DRUG SHOP H. C. LANDAU Opposite Eagle Hotel	T. P. TURNER FANS Tungsten Lamps
Get a FLY KILLER for 5 cents	H. B. BENDER FUNERAL DIRECTOR Telephone calls promptly answered day or night. Phone No. House 153 W. " No. Store 97 W.	E. S. FABER. Cigars and Tobaccos Manufacturer of Robert Emmett Key West, Plantation.
TRIMMER'S 5 and 10c STORE Tanglefoot fly paper 4 sheets for five cents	SPANGLER'S MUSIC HOUSE for Pianos and Musical Instruments Sheet Music Phonograph Records	The CENTRAL GARAGE W. F. Codori, Jr., Mgr. Automobile supplies, repairs and storage. Full stock of tires and tubes.
Stop at the CITY HOTEL P. M. BRUNER, Prop.	C. M. WOLF Dealer in Coal, Lumber, Cement, Seeds and Produce in general.	REICHLE & CROUSE Leading Butchers 29 Baltimore Street.
C. C. BREAM Farming Implements Buggies and Harness	Dougherty & Hartley INSURANCE FIRE and ACCIDENT	WASHINGTON HOTEL GEO. KAISER, Prop. Good Meals our Specialty.
Zeigler's Cigar Store POOL PARLORS Full line of Cigars, Pipes and Tobaccos.	C. A. BLOCHER Centre Square Watches, Jewelry, Repairs Souvenirs.	GETTYSBURG MOTOR CAR CO Storage, Repairs Automobile Supplies Full Stock of Tires
G. C. FISSEL Life, Accident, Automobile and Fire Insurance.	SPANGLER'S RESTAURANT Pies, Ice Cream, Water Ice. Crabs and Frogs Soft Drinks Everything in Season. No. 8 Chambersburg st.	U. AMBROGI The Fruit Store Fruit of all kinds. Imported Olive Oil and Macaroni No. 8 Baltimore street.
CHARLES COBEAN Groceries, Candy, Cigars, Washington St.	SCOTT BROS. Dealers in Coal and Wood Prompt service.	RAYMOND'S AUTO KITCHEN A la Carte Service At any time Regular Dinner 12 to 1
Hotel Gettysburg LIVERY Holtzworth & Hoffman, Prop's. First Class Guides and Teams for the Battlefield.	GETTYSBURG SHOE REPAIR SHOP Corner Washington and Chambersburg Streets HARRY GOTLEIB, Prop. Shoes fixed while you wait.	LEWIS E. KIRSSIN Baltimore St. Clothing, Shoes and Haberdashery
McILHENNY BROS. Dealers in Cement, Grain, Flour, Feed, Hay and Coal Telephone 49 W.	GETTYSBURG MONUMENTAL WORKS Granite and Marble Monuments, Headstones, Markers L. Meals H. M. Trostle	CHAS. S. MUMPER Fire Proof Storage Warehouse for Furniture and Household Goods stored for any length of time.

BARGAINS

At The Gettysburg Supply House

Owing to the lack of room for fall goods, we will close out the following lines at very low prices.

Poultry Wire—all widths Garden Hose Rubber—various grades

Base Ball Goods Mitts Fielder's Gloves Bats Balls

Screen Doors and Screens—size to fit most any door or window

Fishing Tackle An extra good line of tackle consisting of rods, lines, nets, fish baskets, hooks & leaders

We can save you money on Ready Mixed Paints and Floor Stains—are selling this stock at a reduction to save carrying it over the year.

A few Buggies, Rubber or Steel Tire at absolute cost.

Several long Plows must go with this sale.

Heating Plants and Bath Room Fixtures installed any time, and always at the right prices. Let us estimate on your work.

GETTYSBURG SUPPLY HOUSE

J. R. ALBIN, Mgr., J. G. Slonaker, Prop.

TYPEWRITER for sale. Cheap. Like new. Cash or easy payments. Call on or write Curvin Leese, Shultz's Cafe, Gettysburg, Pa.

CHAS. S. MUMPER and CO. have the hottest line of stoves you ever saw.

WANTED: men to work at brick plant. Steady employment.

FARM FOR SALE

One hundred acre farm in Freedom township, close to McCleary's School House. Two sets of buildings, good fencing, principally wire fence. Good stock and fruit farm. Three wells of water with one set of buildings and two with the other. Spring and stream of water. Will sell part or all of this farm.

George W. Jacobs,

R. D. 4, Gettysburg.

Keziah Coffin

Author of
"Cy
Whittaker's
Place,"
"Cap'n Eli,"
Etc.

By
Joseph
C. Lincoln

Illustrations
by
Ellsworth
Young

CHAPTER XII.

In Which Keziah Breaks the News.

It was nearly five o'clock, gray dawn of what was to be a clear, beautiful summer morning, when Keziah softly lifted the latch and entered the parsonage. All night she had been busy at the Hammond tavern. Busy with the doctor and the undertaker, who had been called from his bed by young Higgins; busy with Grace, soothing her, comforting her as best she could, and petting her as a mother might pet a stricken child. The poor girl was on the verge of prostration, and from hysterical spasms of sobs and weeping passed to stretches of silent, dry-eyed agony which were harder to witness and much more to be feared.

"It is all my fault," she repeated over and over again. "All my fault! I killed him! I killed him, Aunt Keziah! What shall I do? Oh, why couldn't I have died instead? It would have been so much better, better for everybody."

Dr. Parker was very anxious. "She must rest," he told Mrs. Coffin. "She must, or her brain will give way. I'm going to give her something to make her sleep and you must get her to take it."

So Keziah tried and, at last, Grace did take the drug. In a little while she was sleeping, uneasily and with moans and sobs, but sleeping, nevertheless.

"Now it's your turn, Keziah," said the doctor. "You go home now and rest, yourself. We don't need you any more just now. Now you go home. You've had a hard night, like the rest of us."

How hard he had no idea. And Keziah, as she wearily entered the parsonage, realized that the morning would be perhaps the hardest of all. For upon her rested the responsibility of seeing that the minister's secret was kept. And she, and no other, must break the news to him.

The dining room was dark and gloomy. She lighted the lamp. Then she heard a door open and Ellery's voice, as he called down the stairs. "Who is it?" he demanded. "Mrs. Coffin."

She was startled. "Yes," she said softly, after a moment. "Yes, Mr. Ellery, it's me."

"It's morning," said the minister. "Are you sick? Has anything happened?"

"Yes," she answered slowly, "something has happened. Are you dressed? Could you come down?"

He replied that he would be down in a moment. When he came he found her standing by the table waiting for him. The look of her face in the lamplight shocked him.

"Why, Mrs. Coffin!" he exclaimed. "What is it? You look as if you had been through some dreadful experience."

Her heart went out to him. She held out both her hands.

"You poor boy," she cried, "I'm trying to tell you one of the hardest things a body can tell. Yes, some one is dead, but that ain't all. Eben Hammond, poor soul, is out of his troubles and gone."

"Eben Hammond! Captain Eben? Dead! Why, why?"

"Yes, Eben's gone. He was taken down sudden and died about ten o'clock last night. I was there and—"

"Captain Eben dead! Why, he was as well as—"

"She said— Oh, I must go! I must go at once!"

He was on his way to the door, but she held it shut.

"No," she said gravely, "you mustn't go. John—you won't mind me callin' you John. I'm old enough, pretty nigh, to be your mother, and I've come to feel almost as if I was. John, you've got to stay here with me. You can't go to that house. You can't go to her."

"Mrs. Coffin, what are you saying? Do you know— Have you—"

"Yes, I know all about it. I know about the meetin' in the pines and all. Oh, why didn't you trust me and tell me? If you had, all would have been so much better!"

He looked at her in utter amazement. The blood rushed to his face. "You know that?" he whispered.

"Yes, I know."

"Did she tell—"

"No, nobody told. That is, only a little. I got a hint and I suspicioned something afore. The rest I saw with my own eyes."

He was now white, but his jaw shot forward and his teeth closed.

"If you do know," he said, "you must realize that my place is with her. Now, when she is in trouble—"

"It ain't the congregation, John," she said. "Nor Trumet, nor your ministry. That means more'n you think it does, now; but it ain't that. You mustn't go to her because—well, because she don't want you to."

"Doesn't want me? I know better." He laughed in supreme scorn.

"She doesn't want you, John. She wouldn't see you if you went. She would send you away again, sure, sartin sure. And if you didn't go when she sent you, you wouldn't be the man I hope you are, John, you mustn't see Grace again. She ain't yours. She belongs to some one else."

"John, Grace Van Horne is goin' to marry Cap'n Nat Hammond. There! that's the livin' truth."

She led him over to the rocking chair and gently forced him into it. He obeyed, although with no apparent realization of what he was doing. Still with her hand on his shoulder she went on speaking. She told him of her visit to the Hammond tavern, saying nothing of Mr. Pepper's call nor of her own experience in the grove. She told of Captain Eben's seizure, of what the doctor said, and of the old Come-Outer's return to consciousness. Then she described the scene in the sick room and how Nat and Grace had plighted troth. He listened, at first stunned and stolid, then with growing impatience.

"So you see," she said, "it's settled; they're engaged, and Dr. Parker will tell everybody of the engagement this very mornin'. It won't any great surprise to me. Those who have been brought up together; 'twas the natural thing that was almost bound to happen. Eben's heart was set on it for years. And she'll have a good husband, John, that I know. And she'll do her best to make him happy. He's a good man and—"

"But I know—"

"Do you suppose she would come to you if she knew it would be your ruin?"

He hesitated. The last time they met, ages before—no, only the previous afternoon—she had told him it was his happiness and his future only that she thought of. He choked and drew his hand across his eyes.

"Mrs. Coffin," he said, "you tell me it will be her ruin. You tell me so. You say she doesn't want me. I tell you that the only thing that will keep me from her is hearing that from her own lips. When she tells me to leave her I will, and not before."

"She'll tell you, John; she'll tell you. And I know Grace. She's made up her mind and won't change it. But I do ask you this: I ask you not to go now. Wait a little while, do. I left her asleep, worn out by what she's been through and under the effects of the doctor's sleepin' medicine. He said she must rest or he was afraid her brain would give out. For her sake, then, wait a little. Then, if you don't hear from her, maybe I can arrange a meetin' place where you can see her without anyone's knowin' it. I'll try. But do wait a little while, for her sake, won't you?"

At last he was listening and best-tating.

"Won't you?" begged Keziah.

"Yes," he answered slowly. "I'll wait. I'll wait until noon, somehow, if I can. I'll try. But not a minute later. Not one. You don't know what you're talking about, Mrs. Coffin."

"Yes, I do. I know well. And I thank you for her sake."

But he did not have to wait until noon. At six o'clock, through the dew-soaked grass of the yard, came the Higgins boy. For the first time in his short life he had been awake all night and he moved slowly.

The housekeeper opened the door. He held up an envelope, clutched in a grimy hand.

"It's for you, Mrs. Keziah," he said. "Grace she sent it. There ain't no answer."

Mrs. Coffin closed the door and tore open the envelope. Within was another addressed, in Grace's handwriting, to Mr. Ellery. The housekeeper entered the study, handed it to him and turned away.

"Dear John," wrote Grace. "I presume Aunt Keziah has told you of uncle's death and of my promise to Nat. It is true. I am going to marry him. I am sure this is right and for the best. Our friendship was a mistake and you must not see me again. Please don't try."

"GRACE VAN HORNE."

Beneath was another paragraph. "Don't worry about me. I shall be happy, I am sure. And I shall hope that you may be. I shall pray for that."

(To Be Continued.)

is dead, but that ain't all. Eben Hammond, poor soul, is out of his troubles and gone."

"Eben Hammond! Captain Eben? Dead! Why, why?"

"Yes, Eben's gone. He was taken down sudden and died about ten o'clock last night. I was there and—"

"Captain Eben dead! Why, he was as well as—"

"She said— Oh, I must go! I must go at once!"

He was on his way to the door, but she held it shut.

"No," she said gravely, "you mustn't go. John—you won't mind me callin' you John. I'm old enough, pretty nigh, to be your mother, and I've come to feel almost as if I was. John, you've got to stay here with me. You can't go to that house. You can't go to her."

"Mrs. Coffin, what are you saying? Do you know— Have you—"

"Yes, I know all about it. I know about the meetin' in the pines and all. Oh, why didn't you trust me and tell me? If you had, all would have been so much better!"

He looked at her in utter amazement. The blood rushed to his face. "You know that?" he whispered.

"Yes, I know."

"Did she tell—"

"No, nobody told. That is, only a little. I got a hint and I suspicioned something afore. The rest I saw with my own eyes."

He was now white, but his jaw shot forward and his teeth closed.

"If you do know," he said, "you must realize that my place is with her. Now, when she is in trouble—"

"It ain't the congregation, John," she said. "Nor Trumet, nor your ministry. That means more'n you think it does, now; but it ain't that. You mustn't go to her because—well, because she don't want you to."

"Doesn't want me? I know better." He laughed in supreme scorn.

"She doesn't want you, John. She wouldn't see you if you went. She would send you away again, sure, sartin sure. And if you didn't go when she sent you, you wouldn't be the man I hope you are, John, you mustn't see Grace again. She ain't yours. She belongs to some one else."

"John, Grace Van Horne is goin' to marry Cap'n Nat Hammond. There! that's the livin' truth."

She led him over to the rocking chair and gently forced him into it. He obeyed, although with no apparent realization of what he was doing. Still with her hand on his shoulder she went on speaking. She told him of her visit to the Hammond tavern, saying nothing of Mr. Pepper's call nor of her own experience in the grove. She told of Captain Eben's seizure, of what the doctor said, and of the old Come-Outer's return to consciousness. Then she described the scene in the sick room and how Nat and Grace had plighted troth. He listened, at first stunned and stolid, then with growing impatience.

"So you see," she said, "it's settled; they're engaged, and Dr. Parker will tell everybody of the engagement this very mornin'. It won't any great surprise to me. Those who have been brought up together; 'twas the natural thing that was almost bound to happen. Eben's heart was set on it for years. And she'll have a good husband, John, that I know. And she'll do her best to make him happy. He's a good man and—"

"But I know—"

"Do you suppose she would come to you if she knew it would be your ruin?"

He hesitated. The last time they met, ages before—no, only the previous afternoon—she had told him it was his happiness and his future only that she thought of. He choked and drew his hand across his eyes.

"Mrs. Coffin," he said, "you tell me it will be her ruin. You tell me so. You say she doesn't want me. I tell you that the only thing that will keep me from her is hearing that from her own lips. When she tells me to leave her I will, and not before."

"She'll tell you, John; she'll tell you. And I know Grace. She's made up her mind and won't change it. But I do ask you this: I ask you not to go now. Wait a little while, do. I left her asleep, worn out by what she's been through and under the effects of the doctor's sleepin' medicine. He said she must rest or he was afraid her brain would give out. For her sake, then, wait a little. Then, if you don't hear from her, maybe I can arrange a meetin' place where you can see her without anyone's knowin' it. I'll try. But do wait a little while, for her sake, won't you?"

At last he was listening and best-tating.

"Won't you?" begged Keziah.

"Yes," he answered slowly. "I'll wait. I'll wait until noon, somehow, if I can. I'll try. But not a minute later. Not one. You don't know what you're talking about, Mrs. Coffin."

"Yes, I do. I know well. And I thank you for her sake."

But he did not have to wait until noon. At six o'clock, through the dew-soaked grass of the yard, came the Higgins boy. For the first time in his short life he had been awake all night and he moved slowly.

The housekeeper opened the door. He held up an envelope, clutched in a grimy hand.

"It's for you, Mrs. Keziah," he said. "Grace she sent it. There ain't no answer."

Mrs. Coffin closed the door and tore open the envelope. Within was another addressed, in Grace's handwriting, to Mr. Ellery. The housekeeper entered the study, handed it to him and turned away.

"Dear John," wrote Grace. "I presume Aunt Keziah has told you of uncle's death and of my promise to Nat. It is true. I am going to marry him. I am sure this is right and for the best. Our friendship was a mistake and you must not see me again. Please don't try."

"GRACE VAN HORNE."

Beneath was another paragraph. "Don't worry about me. I shall be happy, I am sure. And I shall hope that you may be. I shall pray for that."

(To Be Continued.)

DEFALCATIONS ABOVE $100,000

Investigation of Cornwell's Affairs May Increase Total.

FATHER TO SACRIFICE ALL

Will Sacrifice His Property to the Last Cent to Make What Restitution He Can.

Philadelphia, Aug. 8.—The defalcations of Colonel Gibbons Gray Cornwell, a leading lawyer of West Chester, Pa., who committed suicide on a Pennsylvania railroad train in this city, as far as is known, are $197,500.

Arthur P. Reid, attorney for the Derick and Darlington estates, said that this figure would probably mount up higher when the investigations are resumed. No further probe was made and there will be none until after the funeral.

In the Anna W. Roberts estate, valued at $100,000, it was said by an attorney that investigation had disclosed the fact that of the estate's holdings—$23,000 worth of securities were found to be missing.

There are some men in West Chester who have changed their opinion of Colonel Cornwell. What seem to have been responsible are the literature and guides which were found in his grip and which indicated that he had determined upon flight from New York to Europe, Quebec being his possible starting point.

Colonel Cornwell, it was said, would sell a mortgage on a certain property to a purchaser, but instead of turning over the proceeds to his client, would pocket them. Thus he worked the game from both ends. The interest he would pay regularly and in that way allay suspicion.

OFFICIALS' MEETING

The official members of the United Brethren church will have a special business session in the lecture room of the church at 8 o'clock Friday evening. All official members are requested to be present.

MEDICAL ADVERTISING

Save Your Hair

Don't Use Preparations Containing Pisonous Sugar of Lead or Sulphur

Even if you have healthy hair you ought to use a little PARISIAN Sage once a week as a hair dressing. It keeps the hair healthy; prevents scalp itch; falling hair and dandruff, and—baldness.

But be sure you get PARISIAN Sage. There are many imitations. The girl with the Auburn hair is on every cartoon and bottle of PARISIAN Sage.

It banishes dandruff, stops falling hair and scalp itch, and imparts to the hair a brilliancy and lustre that all women as well as men love so dearly. PARISIAN Sage is a daintily perfumed and refreshing hair dressing. It's the best hair tonic you can buy. Large bottle 50 cents at The People's Drug Store and dealers everywhere.

PUBLIC SALE

ON SATURDAY, AUGUST 31, 1912

The undersigned executor of estate of William H. Adams, deceased will offer at public sale the farm in Strasburg township, along the Harrisburg state road 5 miles north of Gettysburg, adjoining lands of D. B. Shriver, F. Golden and others containing 75 acres, 3 acres of timber improved with frame house and barn and all other outbuildings, 2 wells of water, the land is in a good state of cultivation and well fenced.

Sale to begin at 1:30 when terms and conditions will be made known by Harvey W. Adams, Executor, Gettysburg, Pa.

Paid Advertising

Gettysburg, Pa. 8-8-12.

To The Editor of The Times,

Sir:

I have read carefully the account in the yesterday Times of the good work the town council is doing in making improvements, and that some are only experiments. I sympathize greatly with the poor horse, and I can plainly see that the day is not far distant when before he is allowed to come into the limits of the square of Gettysburg, he will first have to get in readiness by following some kind of rules.

First he must bring his own hitching post with him. Then again before he is driven across the intersection of Carlisle and Lincoln streets in winter as well as summer he will have to put on skates, ice skates in winter, and roller skates in summer, and then if he is not a professional skater he will go down and skin his knee or perhaps break his leg. But that is nothing, he's only a horse, poor horse. It is laughable to look at the artistic display of numbers in white paint that are still mar's r our marketmen. The many numbers indicate who is who. This kind of display is preferable to look at by some of our people, than the old blundering horse. Nothing is said about the many foul hog pens that are in our town this day. I think the Town Council of the Borough of Gettysburg needs some new timber: it needs a few new men, some of these old councilmen have been there too long. Why not oust them? at least give them a lift?

Yours respectfully,

E. D. Hudson.

Record Smashing Reduction Sale of MEN'S CLOTHING

Men's and Young Men's Suits that Sold as High as $8.50 . $5 Men's and Young Men's Suits that Sold as High as $13.50 . $10 Men's and Young Men's Suits that Sold as High as $18 . $12.50

ENTIRE STOCK OF MEN'S TROUSERS REDUCED

Sale Prices are 95c, $1.45, $1.89, $2.39, $2.95 These prices are just about a third less than the regular prices. The best patterns and the correct styles.

ALL OXFORDS AND PUMPS REDUCED

Those which formerly sold for $2 and $2.50 now $1.59. Those which formerly sold for $3 and $3.50 now $2.50.

Corner Square and Carlisle St. O. H. LESTZ, Gettysburg, Pennsylvania.

G. W. WEAVER & SON . . . G. W. WEAVER & SON

THE LEADERS

CLEAN-UP SALE

As is usual after a CLEARANCE SALE we find in our stock a lot of—

Odds & Ends & Remnants

which we have marked at a Price that will make them move out in a hurry. Not a lot of "old trash"—but up-to-date merchandise taken from our regular stock, in such shape that you will find only one thing of a kind—but the is such that will pay you to investigate it. This is an opportunity to get a necessary—or a want—and at a Bargain, you cannot afford to let it pass.

Clean-Up Price

Gettysburg, Pa.

THE ENTIRE STOCK OF

$20,000 Worth of Clothing

For Men, Boys and Children

Hats, Caps, Shoes and Gents' Furnishing Goods; To be sold by

LEWIS E. KIRSSIN, 31 Balto., St., Gettysburg.

Leading Outfitter of High Grade Clothing for Men, Youths and Children.

Will be sold at less than cost of manufacture.

Commencing Thursday, August 8; Closing Monday, August 19.

COMING EVENTS

Aug. 10—Adams County picnic. Mt. Holly Springs.
Aug. 15—Annual Sunday School picnic. Round Top.
Aug. 17—Driving Matinee. Track west of town.
Aug. 27—Summer teachers' meeting Brua Chapel.

PUBLIC SALE Of Valuable Farm

On SATURDAY, AUGUST 31, 1912, will sell her farm containing one hundred and thirty-two acres, situated in Mt. Pleasant township, one mile from Goldensville, and one mile east of Bonneville, it is in a high state of cultivation, and has many conveniences being close to churches, schools and Rail Road. There is running water on South side of the farm, a well of never-failing water at house and a never-failing watering place a short distance South of barn. There is a good seven room house and a large one-story out-kitchen, a large bank barn, wagon shed with two corn cribs, implement shed, hog pen, smoke house and all other necessary out-buildings. The buildings are all in good repair in fact new.

Anyone wishing to view the farm can do so by calling on Joseph Harmon residing there and on the undersigned.

Sale to begin at one o'clock when terms will be made known by

MARY E. WENTZ, Widow of D. C. Wentz, dec'd

WANTED: men to work at brick plant. Steady employment.

$2.00 | WILLOW GROVE | $2.00

: : EXCURSION : :

Saturday, August 24th.

Special Excursion Train via Reading Railway.

From	Special L.V. A. M.	From	Special L.V. A. M.
Gettysburg	5.15	Mt. Holly Springs	6.26
Biglerville	5.30	Carlisle	6.45
Guernsey	5.34	Carlisle Junction	6.29
*Centre Mills	5.37	Boiling Springs	6.36
Bendersville	5.42	Brandtsville	6.43
Gardners	5.51	D. & M. Junction	6.47
*Idaville	5.54	*Rosegarden	6.51
Starners	6.01	*Grantham	6.54
*Goodyear	6.07	Bowmansdale	6.57
Hunters Run	6.18	White Hill	7.06
*Upper Mill	6.23	Willow Grove, arrive	10.30

Returning, Special Train will leave Willow Grove 9:15 P. M. for above stations.

Tickets good only on date of excursion on above Special Train in each direction. Children between 5 and 12 years of age half fare.

*Passengers from Centre Mills, Idaville, Goodyear, Upper Mill, Rosegarden and Grantham can purchase tickets from conductor of special train.

Concert Afternoon and Evening
Russian Symphony Orchestra of N. Y.
MODEST ALTSCHULER, Conductor.

APPLES

I buy every day in the week, every week in the month, every month in the year, if you will bring them in. The price is Golden Edged Now, let them come along.

Z. J. PETERS, Guernsey, Pa.

"Send Out a New Wheel for My Mower!"

"Gosh, that's a relief! Suppose I hadn't had a telephone. It would have meant a trip to town, a day lost—and here I am right in the midst of harvesting."

When things go wrong, when troubles come a-visiting, then is the time when a Rural Telephone gets in its heavy work.

YOU can't afford to be without one. You should write to-day for our new booklet, "What Uncle Sam Says about the Rural Telephone." It is free.

The Bell Telephone Company of Pa.
John O. Beam,
Local Manager, York, Pa.